and was held in $10,000 bail. This afternoon he will be taken to Fort Jay for court martial.

Investigators of the Military Intelligence Burcau found that Starck disappeared from Camp Upton on May 15, a few days before his regiment left for France. He has spent the four months since that time, he admits, in fleecing people of money on the plea that he was an officer in distress. Irving Kaufgan, of 105 West Fortieth Street, gave for court martial.

Investigators of the Military Intelligence Bureau found that Starck disappeared from Camp Upton on May 15, a few days before his regiment left for France. He has spent the four months since that time, he admits, in fleecing people of money on the plea that he was an officer in distress. Irving Kaufman, of 105 West Fortieth Street, gave him several hundred dollars.

Starck married Miss Loretta McMahon, of 514 Grove Street, Jersey City, on August 31. He confessed yesterday that he had a wife and five-year-eid child in Houston, Tex. Miss McMahon's father opposed the match and they were married in secret. She was prostrated yesterday when she learned of her supposed husband's duplicity.

The latest attempt of the soldier to chtain money was when he went to the Red Cross headquarters on Thursday, said he was an officer, and asked for a lean of $100 because he had lost his purse.

Former Tribune Man

Is Killed by a Shell
Word came to The Tribune yesterday
of the death of one of its former staff members, Frederick H. Hollowell, a young Quaker, who went to France last November to serve with the Friends' reconstruction unit and later transferred to the American ambulance service. Private Hollowell was on duty as usual when a shell exploded near him, blowing off both legs.
His death came as a climax to a series of narrow escapes of which, he had-
